

attended that this Committee will arouse the trade to take part in another tournament in the near future.

The foursome of McMahon-Eisemann-Snediker and Meehan called the "Ball Beaters," had quite a gallery following them around. Some of the remarkable recoveries made by Eisemann and Snediker from deep in the woods were surprising to their followers. In fact, it certainly looked like Eisemann was chopping down a tree at one time. And Tom Meehan was accused of killing a snake in the woods while attempting to recover his ball from under a lot of brush. On the whole the foursome did splendidly under the circumstances and they may later issue a challenge to any foursome for a team match.

Mr. Pedro Goncalves Martins Is Calling Upon Trade Throughout the Country for the Purpose of Studying Buyers' Requirements—Will Attend Coffee Convention

MR. PEDRO GONCALVES MARTINS, junior partner in Martins, Gregory & Cia., Ltda., coffee exporters, Santos, Brazil, is making an extensive trip in the United States in the interest of his firm, for the purpose of becoming more familiar with the requirements of coffee buyers in this country. He arrived at New Orleans, April 18th, and before returning to Brazil in August he will travel to the Pacific Coast visiting the majority of important coffee distributing centers in the Middle and far West. He planned to attend the coffee convention in Chicago.

Mr. Martins specializes in shipments to the United States, and this is his first visit. Martins, Gregory & Cia., Ltda., are well known in America and Europe as shippers of quality coffees, and enjoy a fine reputation among their many customers. The company is headed by Mr. A. D. Martins, well known coffee expert, who has been engaged in the coffee trade in Brazil for the past thirty years. Other members of the firm are Mr. M. Michaelsen and Mr. H. T. Gregory of London, Mr. A. Igua-temy Martins, Mr. Plinio I. Martins and Mr. Pedro G. Martins, of Santos.

RETURNS FROM EXTENSIVE VISIT TO COLOMBIAN COFFEE DISTRICTS

J. F. Colon, of Echavarria, Inc., Colombian coffee importers, returned to New York on May 22nd from a two months' trip to Colombia in the course of which he traveled at length visiting practically every coffee district in Colombia. He was particularly impressed with the improved transportation facilities in the Valle and Caldas districts. He believes that with the settlement of the Leticia controversy Colombia is on the eve of a decided revival in business.
